

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

CRS
Docket No: 6586-00
25 January 2001

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]:

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 24 January 2001. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

The Board found that you enlisted in the Naval Reserve on 3 April 1963 at age 17. You reported to active duty on 1 November 1965. The record reflects that you received two nonjudicial punishments. The offenses included misbehaving on watch and drunk and disorderly conduct. On 31 October 1967 you were issued a DD Form 214 that shows you were separated under honorable conditions and transferred to the Naval Reserve. On 2 April 1969 you received a general discharge from the Naval Reserve.

Character of service is based, in part, on one's conduct and overall trait averages, both of which are computed from marks assigned during periodic evaluations. Your conduct and overall trait averages were 2.90 and 2.92, respectively. A minimum average conduct mark of 3.0 was required for a fully honorable characterization of service at the time of your separation.

In its review of your application the Board carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your limited education, youth and immaturity, and the contention that your Record of Discharge shows an honorable discharge. However, the Board concluded that these factors were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge given your two disciplinary actions and since your conduct average was insufficiently high to warrant a fully honorable discharge. In this regard, it is clear that your Record of Discharge is in error and that the DD Form 214 is the controlling document. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
